

Finsight Solutions
Senior Financial Consultant

What we do

Finsight Solutions is an entrepreneurial company focused on companies looking for financial expertise. Finsight Solutions guides their customers to bring their company to the next level, by making sure that they can focus on what they can do best; Expand their business.

Finsight Solutions delivers senior financial advisory (CFO as a service) together with strong knowledge in domains like reporting and process implementation/optimization, valuations, due diligence and ERP implementations.

How we do it

We work closely with our clients to understand the challenges and opportunities they face. Helping them as a real partner, means we are not restricted to an external consulting role: we actively participate in their discussions and organization.

We truly believe employee satisfaction is the key to success and creates real added value to our customers. We value entrepreneurial spirit. We believe that you should be able to build your career by taking on new and ever more challenging projects, not by just climbing the company ladder.

Our new team member

As a senior financial consultant at Finsight Solutions, you will not just work on a project. You will work together with your colleagues of Finsight Solutions for and with our customers. This way of working will give you the added value you are looking for as a consultant.
